

Website Login

- First find the IP of the website and use that IP as the filter.
- Then, locate the login HTTP packet.
- In this packet, go to the Javascript object notation and click the object notation where the username and password are present.